SOCIAL CONCERNS

The Poor Box for the month of November is for Bread for the City, a nonprofit agency which provides clothing, food, medical care, legal assistance, and social services to an average of 10,000 needy DC residents each month.

Answering Jesus' Call To Serve "The Least" Among Us: the Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) is a Jesuit-sponsored organization that provides men and women, ages 50 and greater (retired or semi-retired), with substantive opportunities to share their skills, talents and life experiences with nonprofit organizations that assist the materially poor or address policy issues related to poverty. A unique feature of IVC is a spiritual reflection component that helps volunteers discover the deeper meaning in their service and their lives. Volunteers negotiate their schedules with the agency at which they select to serve. To learn more about IVC, contact Mike Goggin, Director of the DC/Metro MD Region: 202-277-4447 or mgoggin@ivcusa.org, or visit www.ivcusa.org and click on "DC-Metro MD."

We continue to collect food for St. Martin's Pantry in Gaithersburg (as we do year-round) with a group of volunteers delivering food weekly. They particularly request (listed in order of need as of October 26): pasta sauce, canned fruit, dry unsweetened cereal, canned vegetables, canned soup, pasta, ramen/dry soup, "add-ins" (cookies, crackers, etc.), mac and cheese, tuna/meat/fish canned, canned beans, "meals in a can" (stew/canned pasta/chili/etc.), and peanut butter and jelly. Ensure for adults and PediaSure for children are both requested and continue to be in short supply. Baby formula, especially Similac Blue, baby food #2, #5 diapers and baby wipes are out completely. We also know that large packages of oatmeal are split into smaller containers for families and child-type drinks, like chocolate or flavored milk or juice boxes (not the Capri type) are requested. Their food reserves are down to their lowest level since March. The Pantry team is still very happy to take any of the larger-size paper bags such as the approx. 16.5 inch by one foot by seven inch bags used by Trader Joe's which are especially useful (handles not necessary.) The plastic bags that are useful can be found at Costco on the non-food side of the store and are known as "Tee Shirt" bags, and are sold in a brown box, about 40 to a box, as well as (empty) plastic newspaper bags which they fill with any food items that fit. Please kindly leave your non-perishable food items in the marked basket in the vestibule. Thank you.

The Second Collection this weekend, November 7/8, is for the Retired Priests of the Archdiocese of Washington. Our priests touch our lives in many ways: they baptize our children, comfort us in the confessional, witness our marriage vows and hold our loved ones' hands as the Lord calls them home. Let us come together to help provide care and housing for our retired priests so they can live their retirement in dignity. There are for ways you can support the Retired Priests Collection this year:

- 1) Please use the envelope mailed to you earlier this month;
 - 2) online - visit adw.org/rpc to support the collection online;
 - 3) text "Priest" to 301-231-1816, which will link you to a secure form to complete your gift;
 - 4) scan the code with your mobile phone to make a gift online.
- Thank you.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The parish community of St. Bartholomew Church extends its deepest sympathy and prayers to Theres Kellermann and family and friends upon the death of her husband and longtime parishioner and St. Bart's choir member Thomas Kellermann on October 26, 2020. Thomas's burial was private but a Celebration of Life will be planned after the pandemic ends.

The parish community of St. Bartholomew Church extends its deepest sympathy and prayers to Connie Morella and family and friends upon the death of her husband and longtime parishioner Tony Morella on October 29, 2020. A Funeral Mass for Tony was celebrated at St. Bartholomew Church on November 7, 2020.

THAT MAN IS YOU

This is to encourage men to try out the That Man is You (TMIY) program, by attending a few sessions by Zoom, with the aim of eventually bringing it to St. Bartholomew parish. It involves watching a 30-minute video, answering a few questions, and sharing experiences, some of which relate to the video. Both the sharing experience and the video are memorable and transformative.

This is a most engaging year for That Man is You; three upcoming presentations are by Mark Miravalle, a professor at Franciscan University, and deal with prayer and Mariology. The first presentation (for those of you who are accessing the bulletin online and are reading this earlier during the week) is this Saturday, November 7, and discusses "The Identity of Mary" and prayer. Dr. Scott Hahn will be presenting 3 more sessions later during the year.

The TMIY Zoom group meets at 7AM on Saturday mornings, and meets for about 45-55 minutes. Contact Paul Bizot, pbizotpe@aol.com or 301-648-5945 if you are interested.

INTERCESSORY PRAYERS

As the Prayer Petition book in the church was removed because of COVID-19 restrictions, we have started a new way of gathering prayer requests from the parish for the time being. It is an online Prayer Intention forum on the parish website here. Please enter your prayer request (you can choose whether to leave your name or not) and these prayer requests will be collected and sent to our Prayer Ministry members to pray and lift these concerns to God's mercy. You can also access the Prayer Intention forum by going to stbartholomew.org and clicking on the alternating button at the top left hand side Prayer Request.

We are very thankful for all our Prayer Ministry members who

Youth Group - for students in grades 6th-12th who are interested in serving their neighbor, learning more about the Faith, and hanging out with others who want to do the same! TRIGESIMO SEGUNDO DOMINGO ORDINARIO 08 DE NOVIEMBRE DE 2020

Jesús nos propone la parábola de las diez vírgenes. Cinco son sensatas que organizan sabiamente la espera del esposo que les ha invitado al banquete de bodas. Las otras cinco son necias: no organizan sabiamente la espera del esposo que se presenta de repente. No están preparadas y quedan excluidas del banquete. Jesús nos recomienda ordenar sabiamente nuestra vida. No basta tener las lámparas encendidas. Hay que tener provisión de aceite para prevenir el riesgo de quedar a oscuras, de no estar en condiciones de entrar al banquete de bodas. Jesús nos pide estar preparados, vigilantes, porque no sabemos el día ni la hora de la llegada del esposo. Acoger la sabiduría de Dios es hacer provisión de fidelidad perseverante a la gracia por los sacramentos, por la oración, por las virtudes sobrenaturales, por el sacrificio, por el cumplimiento de los deberes del propio estado. Entonces, estaremos preparados para participar en el banquete, para salvarnos.
